

REDZED, NOISE AT A FUNERAL

They buried me, taken my soul
I'm lying here, I'm all on my own, yeah
They buried me, they've taken my soul
I'm lying here, I'm all on my own

Makin' noise at the funeral, noise at the funeral
Makin' noise at the funeral, noise at the funeral
Makin' noise at the funeral, noise at the funeral
Makin' noise at the funeral, noise at the funeral

I'm waking up from the dead, black flag is up, organ heavy
Playing dark tones, bitch, you know what's up, black aesthetic
Giant big bats on my shoulders, I summon every Creature that's dead when under the sun, Armageddon

I'm makin' noise at the funeral, noise at the funeral
I'm makin' noise at the funeral, noise at the funeral
I'm makin' noise at the funeral, noise at the funeral
I'm makin' noise at the funeral, noise at the funeral
I'm makin'

Red's turning back to a paradise of demise
Snap all your necks and get hypnotized, hypnotized
