

REDZED, SUICIDE SWING

This is a suicidal swing, I don't need no fucking drink
Baby, I need you by my side, baby, come and take a sit there
Maybe don't you overthink, maybe have another drink
And we'll be dancing through the night

I'm gonna take you to a place
Where you can fucking burn in flames
It's where we both belong, it's where we brawl
Baby, it's over, welcome to hell

Suicidal swing, I don't need no fucking drink
Baby, I need you by my side, baby, come and take a sit there
Maybe don't you overthink, maybe have another drink
And we'll be dancing through the night
Baby, you don't need to fry

You're the angel from the heaven, I'm the devil from the hell
I will take you to my dungeon, I'ma take you to my shell
Baby, don't be so afraid, I don't really mean to hate
I just wanna be your mate

I'm gonna take you to a place
Where you can fucking burn in flames
It's where we both belong, it's where we brawl
Baby, it's over, welcome to hell
