

Reel Big Fish, Brand New Hero

I've got big dreams but no self-esteem, you know?
I'd reach for the stars but I can't find my arms
All this time we've accomplished so much
Why can't I believe why can't I just feel love?

Goin' away leavin today you've gotta find a brand new hero
I let you down when you're not around you know I can't be trusted with anything
All this time we've wanted so much to just belong why can't we just feel love?
Goin away leavin today you've gotta find a brand new hero
What will they say when I've gone away? Gotta find a brand new hero

Always talking but I never say a lot
And I'll blow it if I get another shot
Because it seems like no matter what I've got
It feels like its nothing
I feel like im nothing

Goin' away leavin today you've gotta find a brand new hero
What will they say when I've gone away? Gotta find a brand new hero

Brand new hero
