

Reel Big Fish, Somebody Hates Me i just made an enemy of someone i don't know and they are upset about somethin' that i must have done. it really doesn't make much sense well i've got no statement in my defense i know, no matter what, no matter who, no matter what i do, somebody hates me and i hate somebody too.

did you misunderstand something that i did or was there one of my jokes that you didn't get or do you think you've got the way i think all figured out.

what did i say, to make you feel i'm not cool now?

hate somebody too. i know its wrong, but i do it to and i guess i should say, don't let it get to you. i know, no matter what no matter who no matter what i do somebody hates me and i hate somebody too somebody like you.
