

Reffer, Shift

My life is changing again
It's so fast
I'm passing to another site
To resolve it isn't a simple fact
I can't pay attention to my doubts
Yesterday it was okay
Something's now awaiting me
And i'm afraid, confused and dazed (confusing days)
And i just want to pull through it
My decisions are not taken under pressure
But you always can show your views
You can't decide for me
