

Reflexion, Me & Myself

Welcome in,
but I hope you stay out
Please come back when Im not around
I think this place is Way too small for both of us

Keep me near,
But just close enough
Gain my trust before you take me down
Weak is the mind,
When you change your heart to greed and lust

Where goes the line between you and me?
Whats the difference,
When theres no one to believe?

(Chorus)
Its in our heads,
The sick selfishness
Me and myself,
Forget all the rest
Another spineless one,
With only greed in heart
On our way of life,
Only strong survive

Once youve got in,
Theres only one way out
Another soul in labyrinth of life
Searching for someone
Who cares enough to lead me out

Where goes the line between you and me?
Whats the difference,
When theres no one to believe?

(Chorus)
(Repeat)
