

Refused, Break

You say the problems don't concern you Well wake the fuck up cause they really do how many ways are society going to fuck it up how many lies until we had enough we gotta start and care about the consequences take a look around, it don't make any sense pollution, oppression, violence and destruction lies, dectet, poverty and corruption Our ignorance, has made us blind to the problems that we're facing Our indifference Our tolerance makes me sick indoctrinate lies, cover your eyes mold us into the mainstream, taking our lives we gotta break these chains
