

Regina Spektor, Don't Leave Me (Ne Me Quitte P

Down on Bowery they lose their ball-eyes and their lip-mouths in the night, and stumbling through the streets they say:

"Sir, do you have a light?"

And if you do then you're my friend,
And if you don't then you're my foe,
And if you are a deity of any sort then please don't go!

And down on Lexington they're wearing new shoes stuck to aging feet,
And close you're eyes and open,
And you'll recognize the aging street,
And thing about how things were right
When they were young and veins were tight
And if you are the ghost of Christmas Past then wont you stay the night?

Down in Bronxy-Bronx the kids go sledding down snow-covered slopes And frozen noses, frozen toes and frozen city starts to glow
And yes, they know that it'll melt
And yes, the know New York will thaw
But if you are a friend of any sort then play along and catch a cold!

I love Paris in the rain.

I love, I love, in the rain...
