

Regurgitator, Living In The City (Black Bugs Single)

i want something more than living in the city now all the people's faces are looking kind of sooty walking on the road keep your eye out for the semis oh everything was fine now it's getting kind of heavy

time to get away and look at something pretty one more stupid line to finish off this ditty i try to make it rhyme and keep it sort of witty oh
