

Regurgitator, Obtusian

i got something inside my head and it's got to come out i won't whisper i won't sit still i wanna scream and shout i got so much fucking energy to jump around like a jumping bean but never mind what i say or do 'cause i got nothing to do with you i know you gotta be obtuse sometimes you gotta be obtuse to be kind i got something inside my heart that i feel is true contents of fifty matches that i light for you see a burning fire so bright see a fire burning in the night in the end i'm gonna die so why not make the most of my life...

you gotta be obtuse to be kind (x2)

gotta be... (x6)
