

Regurgitator, The Virtual Life

i've got everything
that i could ever need
it's under lock and key just survive all alone me and my screens

i am living a virtual life
we've got everything here inside... come on (x2)
i don't need a car
why should i leave?
when human contact
is replaced by my tv screen...

i am living a virtual life
we've got everything here inside... come on (x2)

i am living a virtual life
we've got everything here inside... come on (x2)
