

Remady feat. Manu-L, Higher Ground

So many things I've left undone
So many rights so many wrongs
Feel's like I've never cross the line (o yeah)
I was right in front of me
I was blind but now i see

And i want back down
Take me to the higher ground
And you know nothing's gonna stop me now
Got me spinnin round and round (I want back down)
Take me to the higher ground
And you know nothing's gonna stop me now
Got me spinnin round and round

I'm not a saint no not at all
You gotta stand against to wall
Ready to go and cross the line(o yeah)
I can feel it deep inside
Gonna make it right this time
Now it's all right time for me
I was blind but now i see

And i want back down
Take me to the higher ground
And you know nothing's gonna stop me now
Got me spinnin round and round (I want back down)
Take me to the higher ground
And you know nothing's gonna stop me now
Got me spinnin round and round

So many things I've left undone
So many rights so many wrongs
Feel's like I've never cross the line (o yeah)
I was right in front of me
I was blind but now i see

And i want back down
Take me to the higher ground
And you know nothing's gonna stop me now
Got me spinnin round and round (I want back down)
Take me to the higher ground
And you know nothing's gonna stop me now
Got me spinnin round and round
