

Renegade Masterz, Cristal Ship

For some time I'm searching for your love
With the tune, that's something I'll remind you of
Than I feel the turning of the sun
Every moon has something that I'm dreaming of
We can sail and sail as one by the time we reach the sun
When hope will guide my way
I'll hear you say
You are all that I want, you're more than this
You've been gone on your cristal ship
'Cause I'm standing on the shores with the wind and a kiss
Time will fly, you're on the crystal ship
You are all that I want, you're more than this
You've been gone on your cristal ship
'Cause I'm stading on the shores with the wind and a kiss
Time will fly on your cristal ship
Now we sit and wonder at the moon
While my heart is beating so much faster
We can rise, rise up like a spoon
There's a dawn, it's tainted on the roof top
We can sail and sail as one by the time we reach the sun
When hope will guide my way
I'll hear you say
You are all that I want, you're more than this
You've been gone on your cristal ship
'Cause I'm standing on the shores with the wind and a kiss
Time will fly, you're on the crystal ship
You are all that I want, you're more than this
You've been gone on your cristal ship
'Cause I'm stading on the shores with the wind and a kiss
Time will fly on your cristal ship
