

Renton, She was to love me

There was no words
It was all in her smile
The promise she gave
Has disappeared in time
The time stood still
And what seemed to be clear
Has gone away
And means nothing today
She was to love me
But then she change her mind
The promise she have
Has disappeared in time
You put a spell
And you dont even know
My wishful thinking
It what your heart drives on Theres more to give
Than you could even take
You stand on the bridge
Afraid of a step ahead
