

Republika, Blah Blah

So I'll tell you what I'm feeling this painful truth I'm so embarrassed when I see you and all the stupid things you do but now, look now I've got...all the answers...say something to me...
I'll throw, throw it right back in your face and bring you down on your knees now it's too late to surrender no one will wipe away your tears so watch out so watch out now...now I'll fix you...you tell me...that's nothing new your vacant eyes...I'm sick of you...just wait a minute...
I'll smash the mirror to bits blah - blah, what's talking to the mirror now blah-blah, it's my face
blah - blah, what's talking to the mirror now blah-blah, it's my... when you're alone and take a bath at home oh - be careful no one's about and making speeches in the heat, you see the man who really knows his black from white I know that you really try to
to change my mind but I can smash you so get lost-wow
and even I
I don't believe you
so cool it down
just shut your mouth okay-I know
you really try to
but who are you
