

Reverend Horton Heat, Goin' Back Home

I'm goin' back home some day
I'm goin' back home some day
Not sure when r who long I'll stay
I'm goin' back home some day

The Earth is a place for me to roam
The Earth is a place for man to roam
I never do nothin' fun and I just stay home
The Earth is a place for me to roam

There's only so many notes that I can play
Only so many notes that I can play
There's about a million bars and a new one every day
There's millions of notes that I can play

(and I'll do it Uh Uh Uh )

I'm goin' back home some day
I'm goin' back home some day
I've played a million bars and another one today
I'm goin' back home some day (yeah)
