

Reverend Horton Heat, The Devil's Chasing Me

Sunset lights the sky
And there's a shadow over me
Black clouds in the east
And there's a twister underneath

A long black limousine
And there's a demon at the wheel
And ol' sly Satan's in the back
He says he wants to make a deal

A fire breathing whisper singe my ear, but there's no one to be seen
Coming out my rear view mirror is ol' sly Satan's limousine
You sell your soul to the devil he'll give you everything you see
But when the devil comes collecting you gonna be paying for eternity

The Devil's chasing me

Devil, roll your window down
And look me in the eye
No, I did not make no deal
So don't wait for me to die

He's got a red and black tuxedo, he's got a hellhound driving limousine
He's got a fire breathing demon driver who is life satanic fiend
He's got a black goatee and javalina teeth and a rattlesnake on his sleeve
He's got pointy red boots with diamond studs
And a smile made to deceive

The Devil's chasing me

He's got a red and black tuxedo, he's got a hellhound driving limousine
He's got a fire breathing demon driver who is life satanic fiend
He's got a black goatee and javalina teeth and a rattlesnake on his sleeve
He's got pointy red boots with diamond studs
And a smile made to deceive

The Devil's chasing me