

Rez Band, Can't Get You Outta My Mind

I heard your song on the radio,
It stole my heart and it won't let go,
I'm telling you it was so unreal,
You know exactly how I feel,
It said that you were the only one who understood where I was coming from,
You put me together and you tore me apart,
You told me the truth about my broken heart.

And I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my...
I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my...
I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my mind.

All of my friends say I'm going mad,
I guess I thought they might understand,
But nothing I do and nothing I say can make your melody go away,
I sat there on my sinking ship,
I wrung my hands and I bit my lip,
Staring at my shoes and my ball and chain while, on and on, your music played.

And I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my...
I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my...
I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my mind,
I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my...
I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my...
I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my mind, whoa.

The news is spreading all over town,
You tore all of my roadblocks down,
I can hardly eat, I hardly sleep,
I'm over my head in a love so deep,
I heard what you said,
You told me what could be and then you left it up to me,
But once I realised it was true, Jesus, how could I refuse?

And I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my...
I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my...
I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my mind,
I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my...
I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my...
I can't... (I can't)
Get you outta my mind,
Out of my mind.
