

Rez Band, Mirror

I'm swimming in an ocean of darkness, smothered in the kisses of night,
Drowning in the sea of sorrows under waves of incredible height.

Can't remember what dreams were made of, can't believe there is anything left,
What I thought was the Garden of Eden became the Valley of the Shadow of Death.

I know that I know, that I know, that I know I am lost,
Over and over, and over, and over a cross.

I have lived here before
I cannot find the door

Chased by the shadows - it's me,
Nothing ever satisfies me,
Gold in my hand - only rust,
The only constant is me, and me I can't trust.

I know that I know, that I know, that I know I am lost,
Over and over, and over, and over a cross.

I have lived here before,
Can't breathe,
Constant is me,
It's me.

I know that I know, that I know,
