

Rez Band, Nervous World

Why worry about tomorrow?
Let the good times roll,
Big deal if you reap what you sow,
Why hurry through today if you think it don't matter, and you really don't care where you go?

Hey you - you can't take it with you,
Yeah, you - you gotta get it right now.

It's a nervous, nervous world,
It's a nervous, nervous world.

Why worry?
Let the world eat cake,
Why hurry?
Live for pleasure's sake,
Don't think, or we may come unglued,
Just drink 'til the good Earth's nuked.

It's a nervous, nervous world,
Is it any wonder why we crash and burn?
It's a nervous, nervous, nervous world,
When will we ever learn?

And they wind you up 'til the mainspring breaks and the tension beats like a drum,
So you bounce right back for another go 'round along the road to Hell they're on,
Don't think, or you may come unglued,
Party 'til the Earth is nuked.

It's a nervous, nervous world,
Everywhere we see the rise and fall of man,
It's a nervous, nervous, nervous world 'til he comes again.
