

Rez Band, Right On Time

Your love was right on time,
Your love was right on time.

I remember, when I was young: I swayed in the grass of the Autumn sun,
I'd feel the wind upon my face, before it blew to another place,
But I've grown older since the magic of those days; forgotten how the breezes make the meadows

Your love was right on time,
Your love was right on time.

Something tells me I'm not alone, travelling down this lonesome road,
I feel sometimes that I could cry, not knowing the reason why,
Then you told me I was losing all control,
Then you told me I could lose my very soul,
I knew I could not make it on my own, then you came along and made me whole.

Your love was right on time,
Your love was right on time.

Seasons passing as they will,
Fields are mown and the ground lies still,
Now, in sorrow, it comes to mind: I left more than youth and fields behind,
Now, in mercy, it comes to mind: your love was right on time.

Your love was right on time,
Your love was right on time,
Your love was right on time,
Your love was right on time,
(etc. fade)
