

Rez Band, Save Me From Myself

Give me something that's real,
Tell me it won't break,
Give me something that lasts,
Tell me it's not fake.

Do you know someone, possibly, who can be very true to me?
Someone who's not fake?

Someone who could save me from myself, myself,
Someone who could give me some answers.

Our world's turning 'round,
You can be lonely in the middle of a crowd,
People jumping out of their skins,
Waiting for something that will never begin.

Do you know someone, possibly, who would be quite true to me?
Someone who's not fake?

Someone who could save me from myself, myself,
Someone who could give me one answer.

Just one answer,
I think I know, I think I know.

Give me something that's real,
Tell me it won't break,
Give me something that lasts,
Tell me it's not fake.

It's not fake,
It's not fake
It's not fake,
It's not fake,
It's not fake,
It's not fake,
It's not fake,
It's not fake.
