

Rheostatics, These Days Are Good For The Cana

Martin Tielli

Days are good for the Canadian Conservative Youth Party Alliance.
These days are good for us now.
Days are good for the C.C.Y.P.A.
These days are good for us now.
The sun comes up on the flat Edmonton street.
Oh, this morning will be good for us!
There will be no nonsense for the workers to sweep in the morning.
Will be good for us!

I chipped my eye tooth on the back of a urinal.
I will snip your life with the skill of a tailor. Man.

There has been a shift in the public's expectations.
These days are good for us now.
There's a Lenny in my Kravitz that must be removed.
These days are good for us now.
All together! Oh, this day will be good for us.
Oh, pitiful every man. How I've learned to shake your hand.

C.C.Y.P.A.C.C.Y.P.A.C.C.
This is a difficult world, but there are opportunities here.
Oh, these days could be good for you.
There are programs in place that will cure you, that will cure you.
Oh, these days could be good for you.
When the sun goes down on the flat Edmonton streets,
You will seek normal pleasures.
There are sports teams with cheerleaders who will double as hookers.

I chipped my eye tooth on the back of a urinal.
You've got your pain and I've got my pain.
But I don't complain. No I don't complain.
I first snip your life with the precision of a tailor.
Oh pitiful every man, how I've learned to shake your hand.
Oh simple every man, how I've learned... to shake your calloused hand.
