

Rhodes Happy, Noone Here

I feel warm and whole
But there's noone here
Yes, and mine's a heavy soul
But there's noone here
sun
my is Look rising

~~~~~
And it's rising over there
But there's noone here
There's noone here
I'm without a body
To keep me warm
And not even a kitty
To share my storm
Well I know what I need
But there's noone here
And I know just where I bleed
But there's noone here

sun
my is Look rising

And it's rising over there
But there's noone here
There's noone here
And I'm without a body
To keep me warm
And not even a kitty
To share my storm
Well I want a warm brain
But there's noone here
'Cause mine's under a strain
And there's noone here

sun
my is Look rising

And it's rising over there
But there's noone here
