

Rhyn, Break The Seal

Here it comes again
The thing that I need now and needed then
It's Heaven-sent
It fills the space
Though I don't know how I couldn't trace
It's hard to place I heard this sound
Underground
Telling me to rewrite what I see

Don't build me up
'Cos this is not the time or place to feel
Don't bring me down
This never-ending pain can break the seal
Don't build me up

Here it comes once more
The sound I've heard before
It tells my core to change the score
Just release your mind
Emotions make you blind
Forget the things you left behind
Free your soul
Sate the whole
Agony will be your ecstasy

Don't build me up
'Cos this is not the time or place to feel
Don't bring me down
This never-ending pain can break the seal
Don't build me up
