Richard Hawley, It's Over Love

And all those wasted years And all those pointless tears They're over love And all those wasted days Are leading us to say It's over love It's over love It's over love It's over love It's over love

And all those pointless fears And all those wasted years They're over love And all those wasted days Are leading us to say It's over love It's over love