

Richard Hawley, Serious

When you are in love, ah you feel the stars above
There's no devil in her eyes, there's no darkness in disguise
But when you are alone, a kiss can turn your heart to stone
Hearts breaking in the night, there's a devil in her eyes

Oh it's serious, so serious a kiss that caught the wind made you delirious
Oh it's serious, so serious take her in your arms don't be afraid
Never be afraid

When you are in love, ah the stars burn bright above
There's a kindness in her eyes, there's no darkness in disguise
Oh but when you are alone, ah your heart it turns to stone
Hearts breaking in the night, there's a devil in her eyes

Oh it's serious, so serious a kiss that caught the wind made you delirious
Oh it's serious, so serious take her in your arms don't be afraid
Never be afraid

(repeat chorus)
