

Richard Marx, Who Killed Mary?

My mother came to hazard when I was just seven even then the folks in town said with prejudiced eyes that boys not right Three jears ago, when I came to know Mary first time that someone looked beyond the rumors and the lies and saw the man inside We used, to walk down by the river
she loved, to watch the sun go down We used, to walk along the river and dream, our way out of this town No one understood, what I felt for mary no one cared untill the night she went out walking alone
and never come home Man with a badge came knocking next morning here was I surrounded by a thousand fingers suddenly pointed right at me
I swear, I left her by the river
I swear, I left her safe and sound
I need to make it to the river and leave this old Nebraska town
I think about my live gone by
And how its done me wrong Theres no escape for me this time
All of my rescues are gone long gone
I swear, I left her by the river
I swear, I left her safe and sound
I need to make it to the river
and leave this old Nebraska town
