

Richie Kotzen, Alone Against The Wind

Another long night
In a far away city
And another conversation that
Don't really matter to me

I left my heart in your hands
And i only think and talk about
Is how many days until
I'll be with you

Because i'm feeling so alone
I got my head up to the phone
All i hear is voice
Sayin' babe come home
And i feel like i'm alone
Even though people tell me i'm not
I know that it's me and myself
Alone against the wind

Seven more days
And seven more nights
And a little bit o flyin'
Babe stop cryin' i'm coming home soon

I'm gonna leave it behind
This travellin' life
Can't pay enough money
To make it worth while loosing you

Cause i'm feeling so alone
I got my head up to the phone
All i hear is voice
Sayin' babe come home
And i feel like i'm alone
Even though people tell me i'm not
I know that it's me and myself
Alone against the wind
