

Richie Kotzen, Fooled Again

Here I go playing the fool again...
yeah I am, I am, I am Tired and broken by the changing hands Missing what I never had

Not a dream not a thought not a one desire nothin' needed
All the fear, all the loss, all the pain in me has all faded

I'm losin' sleep for the last time
I'm in too deep it's no surprise

So here I go playin' the fool again...
yeah I am, I am, I am
Tired and broken by the changing hands
Missin' what I never had

I shoulda known by the jaded past Times can change but nothing lasts I never thought of being fooled again but I am, I am, I am

Not a lie, not a fight, won't be traumatized by my anger... not too strong, not too weak I can't turn around for a stranger I feel the heat, I'm tempted still I can't be led by your own will
