

Richie Kotzen, I'm Losing You

Your love is fading, I can feel your love fading, O' honey away from me
Because your touch, your touch has grown cold
As if someone else controls your very soul I fooled myself as long as I can, now I feel the presence of another man
It's there when you speak my name,
It's just not the same
O' honey I 'm losin' you

I can feel it the air, It's there everywhere,
O' I'm losin' you
I can feel it in my bones, any day you'll be up and gone, O' I'm losin' you It's all over your face, someone's taken my place, could it be girl that I'm losin' you When I look into your eyes, a reflection of a face I see, O' I'm losin' you

Your love is faded, I can feel it fadin', O' away from me
I can feel it in the air, It's there everywhere,
O' I'm losin' you
I'm hurt down hearted and worried girl, 'cause that face belong to me
I don't want to lose you 'cause I know I've got to groove ya, hey I'm losin' you
