

Richie Kotzen, Remember

I can read your mind
Don't you know its easy for me after all
This time
And I know when you lie
If were talking on the phone or one on
One
The truth you never hide
I don't need you to teel me theres
Something wrong
Because your eyes are unmistakable
I cant seem to get my head around you
Being gone
So before you goa?|so before you leave
Remember remember remember that your Hearts not unbreakable
Remember remember remember that I
Still love you
All the things I thought in never see
Have now come to be
You said our love was strong I said that
We belong
But somehow I lost you suttenly
I don't need you me that theres
Something wrong
Because your give you away
