

Richie Kotzen, Sacred Ground

My faith shaken and my heart is aching
My hands prayin but you know Im fakin
All of the thing that I feel
But none of the things are good for me
I know Im here but where I am

I'm in a fog
I'm in a final dream
Show me I'm wrong
Open my eyes

There is no light where I come from
When you're around
I feel like I'm on a sacred ground

You say love me
But how do I know you'll love me
I say touch me
But how do I let you touch me
Over my heart and my soul
Maybe you know maybe you know
How to bring light to the dark
And how am I letting go?

I'm in your hands
I am a primal scream
Help me be strong
To love my life

There is no light where I come from
When you're around
I feel like I'm on a sacred ground
