

Richie Kotzen, So Cold

Dead but my hearts still beating
You got me lost and ive stopped believing
In you
I was used and abused by you and I can't Believe it
Five years tha the best of my life to
Show me
Your so cold how did I ever let you get me
Your sol cold how did I ever let you get to me
Blind to the web you wrapped me in Deaf to the lies your spinning
Im just a fool that believed in you
But now im faithless
A broken heart and a scarred mind
That what you left me
