Richie Kotzen, Such A Shame

I can hear you cryin' hear you cryin' yea it Echoes in my head
I can see you dying see you dying and your Walking with the dead
All the lies all the lies all the lies that you live truth is the truth that you can't admit

Day in and day out you put in on me Oh you gotta figure out who you wanna be its such a shame, such a shame, such a shame but you do it to yourself it's the things you do

its such a shame, such a shame, such a shame
but its you nobody else and you know is true

I can feel you hurting feel you hurting
But its deeper than my pain
I can see you're worried yeah you're worried
It will never be the same
All the night all the night all the night Spent aware
Days all the days al the days spent under covers

All you ever wanted was a moment of free
You gotta figure out who you wanna be
All you ever wanted was a moment of free
Now your a prisoner and theres no key You gotta figure out who wanna be
