

Rick Springfield, The Magic That Surrounds You

The magic that's around you
The magic that surrounds you
Is the kind of magic You're the very heart of

It's the magic in the trees
The magic on a breeze
It's the magic of the world
Which you're a part of.

Open your eyes boy
Open your heart and soul
Let the world embrace you and you're on your way

Open your eyes boy
Open your mind and body
The world is filled with magic everyday

The magic that's around you
The magic that surrounds you
Is a magic that is yours
if you believe it
It's the magic in the air
The magic everywhere
If you're open to its power
You'll receive it

Look at your life boy
Look at that road ahead
Starting from this moment
You must find your way

Look at your mind boy
Every path leads to adventure
Life is what you make it everyday
Everyday
