

Rick Wright & Dave Harris, Voices

Voices that call you, through feelings inside you
Within your soul, you feel them burning, they take control in you
Voices that call you, through feelings inside you
Voices insisting, reminding, resisting
The way you feel, all though you have to play, you find parity by listening to...
Voices inside you, they reason, they guide you
If you believe, in what you want to be, you'll find your destiny by listening to voices
Voices that call you, through feelings inside you
