

Ride, Mary Anne

Every time I walk you home
You say you just want to be alone
Mary Anne, why can't you see
That you were born to marry me

Take my love, It's all I am
See, I'm determined to be your man
Mary Anne

I wanna pour you into my empty shell
Give you secrets you'll never tell
As the day breaks over our caravan
And you lie beside me like a lamb
Mary Anne

I can't survive without you here
Every second seems like a year
I ain't got nothing, I can't pretend
Take my love, It's all I am
Mary Anne
