

Rie Fu, Funny Dream

I had a funny dream of you and me
were drinkin wine along the cote dAzur
And every where were waiting to see
and were walkin in the rain
I had a funny dream of you and me
we never even knew each other Its getting darker for us to see what was locked up in the chains

Very tempting matter, you give me a drop of optimism
You lit the soreness to the core
And Im waiting for the three-three-three Not shaking any more

I had a funny dream of you and me
we spend all day looking out the window
You smoke, I cough, you quit it all for me
And were laughing in the shade of the tree
I had a funny dream of you and me
and realize this is all shallow, shallow dreams but I can be anything for you I wanna stay calm all the time

Very subtle matter, I say give me a drop of optimism
You take it to a brighter sky
And Im waiting for the three-three-three
And not for any guy

I had a funny dream of you and me
were drinkin wine along the cote dAzur
And every where were waiting to see
and were walkin in the rain
I had a funny dream of you and me
were walkin down the avenue We kiss and we never believe in fortune telling ladies

Very subtle matter, I say give me a drop of optimism
You take it to a brighter sky
And Im waiting for the three-three-three
And not for any guy
