

Rie Fu, Just the Kind of Thought

It was just the kind of thought I needed, couldnt give it up even for a laugh
And I would better be in need, but I got it wrong, I got it all wrong, until we talked
Its just the kind of thought they need You were just the kind of guy I needed, couldnt give it up even for a drink
And I thought of other plans to seek, but I got it wrong, I got it all wrong, until we talked

I wanna hear you scream my name dadada...
like a spell to get out of nowhere
Come up now like a bright pink fairy tale,
they dont fade away

I wanna hear you scream my name dadada...
like a spell to get out of nowhere
Come up now like a bright pink fairy tale,
they dont fade away

Couldnt give it up even for a laugh
And I thought of other places to be, like Sri Lanka, London all the way to India, touch the golden ground of Istanbul, everywhere with you

I wanna hear you scream my name dadada...
like a spell to get out of nowhere
Come up now like a bright pink fairy tale,
they dont fade away

I wanna hear you scream my name dadada...
like a spell to get out of nowhere
Come up now like a bright pink fairy tale,
they dont fade away

It was just the kind of thought I needed,
couldnt give it up even for a laugh
And I would better be in need, so give it up, so they can see, they can see until you know...

I wanna hear you scream my name dadada...
like a spell to get out of nowhere
Come up now like a bright pink fairy tale,
they dont fade away

I wanna hear you scream my name dadada...
like a spell to get out of nowhere
Come up now like a bright pink fairy tale,
they dont fade away
