Righteous Pigs, Overdose

I'm the black fuckin' lord And I am the king The king of this castle And this castle is this world

The whole fuckin' world Is my playground I can do as I wish And do what I want

In a circular motion I walk Laughing hysterically Everyday I'm dying With junk in my veins Everybody says I'm a penny waiting for change

Overdose Overdose Overdose

I fuckin' think Every man is His own fuckin' god So choose your death

The sight of your Motionless, bloody body With tracks on your arm Is how you will die

Take my fuckin' word I see it every day A junkie is a man Who will just fade away

In a circular motion I walk Laughing hysterically Everyday I'm dying With junk in my veins Everybody says I'm a penny waiting for change
