

Rita Redshoes, Love, What Is It?

(Love, love)
Don't you know what it is?
(Love, love)
Don't you know how it feels?
(Love, love)
Don't you know how it looks?
(Love, love)
But I know that it kills
(Love, love)
Don't you know how I miss you?
(Love, love)
Remember the way I kissed you?
(Love, love)
Don't you know what it takes?
(Love, love)
But I know that

I forgive if you're still aware
But listen to me honey,
This is not fair
And I remember when you run away
But if you miss me honey,
I'll be okay

(Love, love)
Don't you know what it is?
(Love, love)
Don't you know how it choose?
(Love, love)
Don't you know how it breaks?
(Love, love)
Well, I know how it blooms
(Love, love)
Don't you know how I miss you?
(Love, love)
I wanna hold you and kiss you?
(Love, love)
You do know what it takes
(Love, love)
But I know that

I forgive if you're still aware
But listen to me honey,
This is not fair
When you come again
Cause with this feeling honey,
I do not stand
And I remember when you run away
But if you miss me honey,
I'll be okay

(Love, love)
Don't you know what it is?
