

River Phoenix, Blue Period

I never thought I could see
Such blue
As the ice I fell into

I never thought I could feel
Such blue
As the chill now embracing you

Most of us know where to go
When we need someone

I'm a fool
Too out of reach
I believe no one

This is not the way
I want to see your face
And this change could be
The death of you and me

Cause I opened the door
To such blue
Living flesh
Our blood shows through

If I could draw
A conclusion here
I'd say...
That the end draws near

Most of us
Have somewhere safe
To escape from the cold
We exhausted any trust
To think we can hold

And I'll never know
The ghost that wears your clothes
You must not know how close
To the edge I go

This is not the way
I want to see your face
Your desperate eyes reach to me
As blue as blue could be
