

Roachford, The Way I Feel

So you want to call it a day
I think your crazy what else would I say thats just the way that I feel just the way I feel
And you say
the wel has run dry
There is just bitter words to me
No reason no right That just the way that I feel can't help the way that I feel See I don't want to lose you I just want you in my life I don't want to arque over who is wrong and who is right I dont want to lose you I still want you in my life so I'm trying to let you know the that I feel Now you want just to throw it all away see I never understand you what else can I say that just the way I fell this is the way I feel cant help the way I feel baby
this is the way I feel
