

Rob Dougan, Speed Me Towards Death

Speed me towards death
Cause I just can't wait for her
I want her to come
I want to embrace her
I've decided it's life
That I don't like - that I don't like
Speed me towards death
Cause I think she'd go for me
They say time is the killer
I can't wait he's too slow for me
I've tried all the rest
How I want to try the best
And I'd die for some company
I'd die for some company

I don't want to die slowly
I don't want to decay
I want to be chosen
I want to be made
I don't want to die lonely and weary of life
I will not be earthbound
I'm gonna fly

So speed me towards death
Cause I want her to taste me
You know my senses are dead
I want her to awaken me
I've realised that this world (at it's best)
Is just a prelude to the next
And it's not one I want to hear
It's not one I want to read

I don't want to die slowly
I don't want to decay
I want to be chosen
I want to be made
I don't want to die lonely and weary of life
I will not be earthbound
I 'm gonna fly

For life is a game fit only for fools
It's a horse that can't win
In a race rigged to lose

So speed me towards death
