

Rob Rock, Fly Away

When you're lost inside the dead of night
You can hear the city rage
Another one kills and another one dies
And another one shares the pain
See the murder and the rape and a cop on the take
Don't you know that it never ends
The sun will rise and the sun will set
But there's madness in the hearts of men
Caught in the circle with no end in sight
Better turn yourself another page
I'm sick and tired of all the hopeless talk
'cause nothing's ever gonna' change

Think I'll fly away into the setting sun
Away from the dark of the night
'cause the only time that I feel alright is with you

Caught in the middle of an endless fight
It comes down to time and chance
Got a lot or a little, better enjoy life
'cause you don't know whether love or hate
Is waiting outside your door
So you better pray, there's no delay
From the one that's worth living for

Gonna' fly away into the setting sun
Away from the dark and the night
Better find yourself a true romance
'cause this crazy world lives under the gun
It's only a matter of time
Gonna' fly away into the setting sun
Away from the dark and the night
'cause the only time that I feel alright is with you

(solo)

Stuck in the middle in the dead of night
You can hear the inner city rage
Caught in a circle with no end in sight
Better turn yourself another page
Generations come, generations go
Nothing's ever gonna change
Gonna' fly away into the setting sun
Where the light is never gonna' fade
