

Rob Rock, Warrior

I could see the city lights
Then they turned to black
Then I heard a sirens crying sounding out ATTACK!
I could see the rockets glare
Shooting in the night
Everyone was praying for their lives

Am I dreaming
I don't believe it
Am I wrong or right
Then I heard a voice say in the night

I'm a warrior, take my hand!
Let me lead you to the promised land
I'm a warrior, take my hand!
I'm a soldier under his command

Then I saw this blinding light
I heard a sonic boom
I could feel the earth shake in the doom

I couldn't see him
But I could feel him
Lift me to the sky
I could hear the voice that saved my life

I'm a warrior, take my hand!
Let me lead you to the promised land
I'm a warrior, take my hand!
I'm a soldier under his command

(solo)

Am I dreaming
I don't believe it
Am I wrong or right
Then I heard a voice say in the night

I'm a warrior, take my hand!
Let me lead you to the promised land
I'm a warrior, take my hand!
I'm a soldier under his command

I'm a warrior
Take my hand!
