

Rob Searle, Troy (Sinead O'Conner)

I remember it
Jumping in a rain storm
Sitting in the long grass in the summer, keeping warm...

I remember it
That restless night
We were so young then that we thought everything we could possibly do was right
Then the mood stolen from our lives

I wondered where you went to, you told me
And in the light I will rise
You'll return
Phoenix from the flame
We'll learn from your rise
You'll return to what you were

I never meant to hurt you
I swear
I never meant to do that to you next time I'll keep my hands to myself instead

Oh does she love you
What does she want you to do
Does she need you like I do
Do you love her
It she good for you
Does she hold you like I do

Do you want me
Should I leave
I know you always telling me that you love me just sometime I'm wonderin if I should believe

Oh, I love you
God I love you
I'd kill a dragon for you.....,Oh I'd die
