Boozerz

I don't know what you do

I don't know why do it

I don't why you a booooooooozerrrr

I look at you for inspiration

Look at you for my soul

Look at you do the stupid things that you do

But how'm I meant to look

Upon you like a book

Knowing you'll do summat thats outta this world

I don't know what you do

I don't know why do it

I don't why you a booooooooozerrrr

But the Boozerz are crazy

And really are fine

The whole damn finest being in this world

I don't know what you do

I don't know why do it

I don't why you a booooooooozerrrr
