

Robben Ford, Something For The Pain

Time to search my soul
Now that I'm alone
And I need you

Lessons from the past
Say nothin' ever lasts
But I need you

This I know for sure
They'll never be a cure
So give me somethin' for the pain
So give me somethin' for the pain

Taking my world apart
It's written in my heart
That I need you

You were runnin' through my veins
Before I knew your name
And I need you

This I know for sure
They'll never be a cure
Give me somethin' for the pain
Give me somethin' for the pain

One day I'll be a different me
And fly out an open door
Then I will be that day set free
And dream of you no more
Dream of you no more
